Nance-Wood.

Last night the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright was ablaze with light and decorations, the occasion being the wedding of their daughter, Miss Jessie Wood, to Mr. Wm. H. Nance.

At 7 o'clock the guests began to assemble, and before the time for the ceremony at 7:30 the house and lawn were thronged with guests, who came to do honor to the occasion. Promptly at the appointed time the bridal procession moved forward to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, with Miss Kate Hunter at the piano.

First came the ribbon bearers, forming an aisle through which the procession was to pass, little Misses at the Masters Mary Gooch and Clara, the Dilley, Marguerite Nance and Lewis, Maury, Elizabeth Wright and John Gregg, followed by the bridal party as follows: Miss Irma Gooch with Mr. T. B. Greenwood, Miss Mattie Greenwood with Mr. H. G. Ezell, Miss Georgie McMeans with Mr. E. S. Kane, after which came the groom, Mr. W. H. Nance, with the best man, Mr. A. C. Green, Miss Lula Gooch, maid of honor, flower children, Princess Ackerman and Alex. Gregg, scattering the roses before the bride, who came leaning on the arm of her father. The bride never looked more beautiful than she did attired in a bridal gown of white mousseline over silk, with long bridal veil, held in place by a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom, carrying a bouquet of white carnations and ferns.

The bridesmaids all were beautiful in silk, carrying bouquets of pink roses. The color scheme of white and pink was carried out in all the costumes of the attendants, and the decorations. The rooms of the spacious home were thrown together and loaded with great banks of ferns, palms and flowers.

After receiving the congratulations of the guests, the bridal party repaired to the dining room, where the bride's cake was cut and refreshments were served.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willis of the Methodist church. The presents were numerous and costly, the families of both the bride and groom being among the oldest in the city.

Gooch-Huffmaster.

Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Central Methodist Church was the scene of a very happy wedding. At 1 o'clock Mr. Lucius Gooch of Palestine, Texas, led to the holy altar Miss Helen Huffmaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Huffmaster of Galveston, Rev. George S. Sexton, pastor of this church, officiating.

This was not a wedding of glitter and pomp, but a union of true Christian hearts, that found in each other a harmony of thought and action. The church was almost filled with friends of the contracting parties and the sacred edifice and its furnishings presented a substantial picture in keeping with the solemn moment. Promptly at the hour appointed the bride came to the church on the arm of her father, walking slowly down the aisle, and the groom in waiting at the altar. The organ was attended by Mrs. Garrett, who rendered appropriate music during the ceremony. The couple were met at the altar by the minister who, in an appropriate ceremony, pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was gowned in a handsome black and white silk shirtwaist traveling suit, trimmed in mousseline de soie, white applique, with hat to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern.

The bride was born in Galveston and enjoys the proud distinction of being raised under the influence of a true Christian parentage, and she inherits all of the noble traits of character that have been strewn by their hands, like flowers along life's pathway.

Mr. Gooch is a man of business and is well known in banking circles throughout Texas as a most substantial character. He is cashier of the First National Bank at Palestine.

The bridal couple took the afternoon train for St. Louis and other points of interest, and will return to their future home in Palestine the latter part of August.—Galveston News.

W. O. W. Notice.

A special meeting of all W. O. W. committees is called for this evening at 8 o'clock, at the council chamber of the city hall. Every committeeman is urged to attend.
